-A committee from the Board of Mayor and Aldermen have been running out some new lines this week for an extension of the corporate limits. The proposed extension will include a good deal of farming land inside the corporation, but this is necessary to give the corporate lines any symmetrical shape, and people whose residences are inside the corporation and who have the benefit of good streets and other advantages of corporate life, cannot consistently complain if those portions of their lands lying between their residences and other necks of the corporation as the lines now run, are brought in and made -The bridge committee appointed to bear at least a small portion of the > -Chattanooga Times: Last Wednesday, Frank Spurlock, one of Chattanooga's most prominent young lawyers, led to the altar Miss Lena Womack, one of the most beautiful and accomplished of McMinnville's fair daughters. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's father, Col. W. C. Womack, by Rev. Dr. G. T. Stainback, at high noon. The house was beautifully decorated with evergreens, japonicas and primroses. Immediately after the ceremony, a sumptuous luncheon was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Spurlock were driven to the depot and took the 1:30 train for this city. The bride was attired in a neat traveling suit of tan, trimmed with brown velvet, with hat and gloves to match. The groom and two attendants, Frank Colville and Joe Morford, were in conventional black. There were no lady attendants.
